

The scatter plot displays the raw scores of 100 students. The x-axis, labeled 'Raw Score', ranges from 0 to 10. The y-axis represents individual students, ordered by their raw score from lowest to highest. The plot shows a clear positive correlation between the student's rank and their raw score, with most students clustered between scores of 4 and 6.

